Elm Street DREAM Update
January 2006

A New Year brings another semester of DREAM to the families living on Elm Street and the University of Vermont mentors. January was a short month for the crew, actually only consisting of one Friday DREAM, with lots of lots of awesome plans on the drawing table.

The semester kicked off with the group coming together and playing games and one-on-one time for all the mentor matches. The mentors

The mentors have also been busy reconfiguring their leadership model and a solid group of mentors that will continue to grow from semester to semester. They worked with the office staff to conduct an online survey, are planning a retreat for the beginning of February, set-up a parent-mentor social/information sharing for early February, and have elected one new co-chair. They have serious plans and are doing an amazing job strengthening their program for the New Year!

Keep DREAMing!
